Question #1: List your academic and professional credentials, specific accomplishments and volunteer activities. State why you are running and what qualifies you for this office. (100 words total)

Having served as a missionary and dean of a Bible school in Eastern Europe, I have experienced the failures of socialism and the terrible effects of inflation firsthand. Since that time I have been actively working in the Republican party and with the grassroots to stop Washington, D.C. and career politicians from taking us down that path. As a servant of the people, I will fight for their rights and accomplish the goals I have pledged in my

Question #2: What do you see as the most important issues facing your office and staff? (200 words or less)

The most important issue we are facing is the out of control borrowing and spending coming from Washington, D.C. We can no longer afford to keep career politicians who will sell our children's and grandchildren's futures to the Wall Street bankers by voting to give away $800 billion of our money for their failures like John Sullivan has voted to do. We must return to the basic principles that made our country great by getting back to limited government, the free market enterprise, and a strong moral foundation.
